Enclosed is an application so you can sign up as soon as possible. There will be a check-in point for vendors the afternoon of the event. You will receive more information about check-in and other details in your confirmation letter. You will not be given your booth number until you check-in the day of the event.

Please be sure to include on the application what your electrical requirements are, the dimensions of your booth and a photograph & list of what you will be selling.

Please note that the festival reserves the rights to all soft-drink and water sales.

We are only accepting food booths, and electricity is limited so make your reservation today!
